

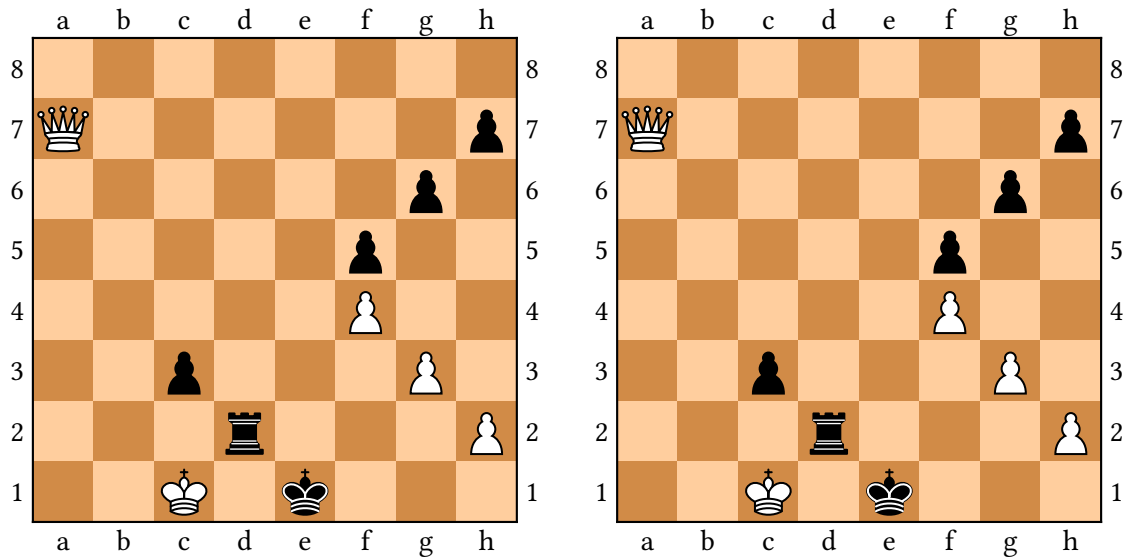

Figure 1: This is the last position of a game by the two former world champions Garry Kasparov and Veselin Topalov. Black resigns in this completely lost position. This is obvious to a grandmaster, but not to a model with no chess knowledge.